

BRYAN SPEAKS TO GREAT CROWD

Enthusiastic Reception Is Accorded Democratic Leader by People of Cincinnati.

TRUTHS PLAINLY SPOKEN

NEBRASKAN NOT A PROPHET OF EVIL.

Cincinnati, Sept. 13.—Introduced by Mayor E. J. Dempsey, and speaking from a stand erected over the diamond of the Cincinnati ball park, William Jennings Bryan tonight addressed an immense audience which occupied all the seats in the grandstand and several thousand additional chairs. Mr. Bryan arrived from Louisville at noon and spent the afternoon receiving callers. He was given an enthusiastic reception.

Mr. Bryan returned thanks for the crowd, the reception and the commendations given him by the mayor. He claimed no credit for principles which he has advocated have grown popular, for he never had thought he stood alone in the advocacy of Democratic principles.

Democracy World-Wide.

"The Democratic idea is larger than this republic," he said. "There is no nation which I have visited in which there are not the seeds of democracy, and in them all democracy is growing. The man who puts country above self is the reformer. I have found everywhere men striving to bring government nearer the will of the people. It is not strange that reformers sometimes are discouraged. Some are in our party, some are Republicans, but all unite for better things. Your Democratic mayor was elected with the help of Republican votes. He appeared not to the boss, but to the people, and his conscience responded in his election."

Conditions Growing Better.

He maintained that more people in every community did not steal because of their consciences than for fear of the law. Conditions are growing better, and an appeal to the consciences of people will bring a response. He thought it safe to say that Philadelphia had been the wickedest city in the country. When he heard that some preachers were going to pray for Philadelphia's mayor, he thought they were praying for the wrong man, as they should pray for the citizen who chose the mayor. However, the sentiment aroused by them aroused the mayor, who called a wicked city "I am feeling so good over this reception that I am going to tell that Cincinnati is the wickedest city in the world," he declared. "The boss and his henchman, the franchise grabber, the selling of votes, subsidized newspapers, the councilmen endeavoring to keep these good people in despair. Yet you did elect an honest mayor."

Citizens Should Keep Awake.

Mr. Bryan then expressed the fear that the people would go to sleep thinking they needed no more.

"Special interests never sleep, while the people are often hard to waken. If the people do not sleep at night there would be no burglaries, and if citizens did not sleep there would be no dishonest government."

He appealed for the citizens to hold up the hands of the man elected to hold up the law. "Tell him you enlisted for the war," he said.

Only One Candidate.

"For ten years the Republican party has been in undisputed control of the national government, and yet after ten years of abundant opportunity we find that the people are not satisfied. Ten years ago they had many men who were believed to be sure of election to the presidency. If nominated, they would have been elected. But now, after ten years, their papers believe that in the Republican party there is only one man who has any chance of election."

Follows Democratic Platform.

"The hopes of the Republican party hang on one man," declared the speaker, "because that man has been carrying out a Democratic platform. Did you ever before know of a party having to hang its hopes on its leader's desertion? The party to the ideas of their opponents?"

At the conclusion of his address Mr. Bryan was driven to the Grand hotel and immediately retired for the night. Mrs. Bryan and Miss Grace, arriving from Lincoln, Neb., this evening with Mr. Bryan, they will leave at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning over the Norfolk and Western railroad for Bradford, Va., where Miss Bryan will enter a seminary.

Dr. Keith has resumed his dental practice, 502 Scott building, 148 Main.

GENERAL CORBIN RETIRES TODAY

Will Be Succeeded by General Greely and Commander of Northern Division.

FINAL REPORT PUBLISHED

CRITICISM OF RAILROAD RATE BILL.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Major General A. W. Greely, lately in command of the Pacific division, left Washington today for St. Louis, where Saturday he expects to relieve as commander-in-chief of the northern division. Lieutenant General Henry C. Corbin.

General Corbin, in a report to the military secretary, made public today, contributes his disapproval of the legislative prohibition against the sale of beer and light wines in the post exchanges.

Officers Not In It.

He also calls attention to the fact that enlisted men enjoy the right to deposit their savings with army paymasters and that congress annually appropriates money to pay interest on these. The country has not been extended to officers, but General Corbin says the disapproval should be terminated, especially where it affects officers serving in the Philippines and Alaska.

He also recommends "a proper allowance of fuel for heating and cooking purposes" and that gas and electric light when furnished a post should be provided for the officers' quarters the same as the barracks.

Favors High Rank.

He recommends the retention of the grade of lieutenant general and the bestowal of this grade upon all corps commanders.

Re-enlistment in the army should not be encouraged in time of peace, according to General Corbin, except in special cases. His argument is to raise to "military strength by training a number of men by three years' enlistment and then having them return to civil life, ready at any time of their active manhood for service in war."

He also recommends that article 35 of the articles of war be revised to provide that any officer found drunk shall be dismissed from the service. The article now provides that dismissed shall follow the finding of an officer drunk on duty.

Inefficient System.

The present system of athletic exercise, he declared, promotes championship feats by a few, but does not aid the organization as a whole. He says it would be much better if by general systematic training the whole organization could be developed. He says that the present system is able to put up a fight. The anti-pass provision of the railroad bill is also criticized by General Corbin. He says that the legislation worked a hardship upon many officers and enlisted men by doing away with the privilege of half rates for their families and half rates to themselves when on leave of absence.

PAPERS ON TUBERCULOSIS

Methods of Treatment Discussed by International Homeopathic Congress.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 13.—Today's sessions of the International Homeopathic congress were given over to a discussion of clinical medicine and pathology. There were many papers read on tuberculosis, in which the writers discussed methods of treatment in the several stages of the disease and the precautions that should be taken to arrest its spread. It was stated that no cure has yet been found when tuberculosis has taken a firm hold. Many treatments were mentioned, however, that showed good results in the incipient stages of the disease.

The congress took up also heart complications of rheumatism, the treatment of arthritic diseases other than rheumatism, and the treatment of the heart.

At the business session held today prior to the meeting of the international congress, the following officers were elected: President—Dr. E. B. Hooker, Hartford, Conn.; First Vice President—Dr. James W. Ward, health commissioner of San Francisco; Second Vice President—Dr. W. H. Reilly, Fulton, Mo.

Secretary—Dr. Frank Kraft, Cleveland; Treasurer—Dr. T. Franklin Smith, New York.

Among the reports made to the institute was one dealing with the funds raised for homeopathic physicians who suffered from the California earthquake. It was reported that $250 had been raised for these sufferers. A committee was appointed to receive subscriptions in aid of the San Francisco homeopathic hospital. The institute subscribed $1,000.

Following the business session the international congress adjourned. Tuberculosis was discussed. Dr. John E. White of Colorado Springs warned physicians of the danger of the disease. He said that they should have the same care in Colorado, he said, that they would have at home, under the treatment of physicians.

On a photograph she sent to her sister, she wrote the words: "My life was all I had to give."

Dangerous Assignment. Odessa, Sept. 13.—All the nine members of the local law have been arrested and will be court-martialed for revolutionary activity and the collection of funds wherever they could find them. The military authorities are having the greatest difficulty in constituting field courts here and Otkakov for the trial of revolutionists. Almost all the officers originally selected to act as judges have refused to serve, preferring to retire from the service. The names of six officers who have accepted are kept with the greatest secrecy, for fear of attempts on their lives.

Two Dandits Killed. St. Petersburg, Sept. 13.—An attempt to rob a train near St. Petersburg resulted in two of the dandits being killed, a third mortally wounded and others being captured.

The band consisted of fifteen men. They have relieved the bank and taken a large sum of money when they were surrounded by the train guard who fired them. The Jewish band has now of these social revolutionists in condemning such crimes.

A girl revolutionist in Yalta has committed suicide because she was ordered by a police officer to marry a childhood acquaintance.

ABANDONED BY FRIENDS WHO WERE COMPELLED TO LEAVE THEIR HOUSES AT SIEDLEE.

Abandoned by Friends Who Were Compelled to Leave Their Houses at Siedlee.

SEARCH MADE FOR BODIES

ANOTHER OUTBREAK FEARED AT ODESSA.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 13.—The resumption of telegraphic communication with Siedlee has enabled the press of St. Petersburg, for the first time, to present a picture of the conditions in the ravaged town. As in the case of the massacre at Bialystok, later messages greatly reduce the number of dead from that of the early reports. The property losses, however, from the fury and cupidity of the mob and the destruction by bombardment and subsequent fire, are placed higher, running to $200,000. Although it is said that the correspondents enumerated sixty-two corpses, mostly Jews. The number of corpses buried privately or consumed in burning buildings may add to other scores to this number. A pitiful feature of the disaster was the death of many women and persons who were abandoned by their friends in the houses from which the people were forced to flee for their lives. Friends are searching for bodies of those who were killed.

There is reason to believe that this attack on the Jews is traceable to the murder of an official on Aug. 21, and the events of Saturday supplied the necessary spark to inflame the passions of the soldiers.

MONEY MUST BE REPAYED.

Robbery of Trains a Serious Matter for Russian Government.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 13.—Revolutionists who have escaped from Kamyshev, Saratov province, are committing many ex-bank robberies. A band of them attacked the train at Janbu, but a patrol arrived and fired a volley, wounding several. Four members of the band were taken prisoners.

The re-payment of money robbed from the postal department in transit on trains is becoming a serious matter for the government. Formerly the amount thus stolen averaged $2,000 a year, but for the first eight months of this year it has reached $150,000. Yesterday the cabinet decided to reimburse this money in installments and established a first credit to this end of $150,000.

Also was voted as a loan to the zemstvos to replenish their coffers for hospital, school and soup kitchen purposes.

The Rech this morning publishes an attack by M. Kuter, former minister of agriculture, on the government's agrarian program. It is declared to be unconstitutional and the writer says it will be rejected by the new assembly.

After successful trials ten torpedo boats, built in Germany, have been added to the navy. They are 375 tons each and can make 35 knots. As a result of lessons learned during the war with Japan these new vessels will discharge larger torpedoes than other boats of their kind.

WORK OF SECRET POLICE.

Ten Members of the "Flying Group" Taken Into Custody.

Moscow, Sept. 13.—Following the recent correspondence by the agents of the secret police with Vladimir Macary, the leader of the Moscow section of the "Flying Group," the police have taken into custody ten members of this organization, eight here and two in southern Russia. All were concerned in the assassination of the late emperor, and have been committed here last March by the Russian government.

The police have unearthed a false passport bureau, well provided with official stamps and seals, and have discovered these false passports are in circulation that the passport system for the tracing of resolutions has become a farce.

EXTERMINATION OF JEWS.

Grave Apprehension Again Aroused at Odessa.

Odessa, Sept. 13.—Anti-Jewish agitation is rife. Wall space, the sides of houses and telegraph poles throughout the city are plastered with proclamations issued by the "Union of Russian People," urging patriots to combine to exterminate the Jews. The action has aroused grave apprehension among the peacefully inclined, both Jews and Christians.

It is reported here that the Jewish town of Koopin, in the district of Kamenetz, has been burned down by peasants from the surrounding country. Some of the inhabitants are said to have been killed in flight, while many perished in the flames.

Gave All She Had. St. Petersburg, Sept. 13.—"Long live the Royal Revolution for Land and Liberty." These were the last words the young General Konopliankov, the girl who assassinated General Min last month and who was sentenced to death by a military tribunal, were uttered as the rope was placed around her neck. She refused to see a priest prior to the execution. She mounted the scaffold with firm steps and would not be aided.

On a photograph she sent to her sister, she wrote the words: "My life was all I had to give."
